

Join us for an interactive panel

HIV/AIDS

AND REPRODUCTIVE JUSTICE

Join us for an interactive panel to discuss how human rights strategies and comparative models used throughout the world can be applied to the U.S. to address intersections between prevention and treatment of HIV/AIDS and reproductive healthcare. Panelists will examine legal and structural barriers to integrated care, particularly for Women of Color in the U.S., including:

- Lack of access to contraception
- Inadequate sexuality education
- Violence against women

Date: Monday, March 9

Time: 12:00 – 2:00 p.m.

Venue: UN Church Center, 777 United Nations Plaza, 11th Floor

PRESENTERS:

Folami Harris, Academy for Educational Development (moderator)

Dazon Dixon, SisterLove (panelist)

Jacqui Patterson, Women of Color United (panelist)

Delphine Serumaga, People Opposing Women's Abuse (panelist)

Mabel Takona, ActionAid International (panelist)

Katrina Anderson, Center for Reproductive Rights (panelist)